

Estelle's visit to the Houses of Parliament

By Estelle Roberts 2012

Good evening Estelle.

Excuse me a moment I'm just having a little bit of a problem with the vocal cords. It's a problem you know when you occupy the physical body in its entirety you have to control so many things. It's so much easier when you use the use of the trumpet

We do talk at times and people just don't listen. They do that you know. We wonder why we bother after all we're there to guide, to help and there's no point in guiding and helping when people don't listen. They just sit there and they close their minds.

I don't really know what I'm going to say today because I was just asked if I would come and meet you again and I was told that you were going to ask questions. I did tell my friend to give you advanced warning because it is necessary at times to demonstrate that the control and the people who are coming through are genuine and 100% and we have to try the scenario in a friendly atmosphere. Very bad when you think about it isn't it? We are going out to deliver our teachings to other people who profess to be spiritually minded and yet we classify it as a hostile environment.

Yes that's a shame.

Isn't it just.

You must have experience the same thing when you were on the Earth Plane.

Oh I had many hostilities around but then it was a different time then. Nobody really wanted to believe and therefore we had to demonstrate all the time and so often most of our time was spent with giving evidential proof. That's what they want now though isn't it? They all just want evidential proof, rather than saying alright we know that you are who you say you are and then why not give us a little bit of your knowledge of what is really happening. This medium has a dreadful tickle in the nose, have to do something about it. You do get very used to not having any of these little ailments or niggly things about you.

Unfortunately I think that some people these days just want to prove you wrong. Was it the same when you were on the Earth Plane?

They weren't any different in my time dear girl. Why do you think I had to go to the Houses of Parliament to prove it? And I tell you there was a lot of open mouths there. There was only the fact that we had generated a close friendship with the Prime Minister of the time, Winston Churchill, that we were allowed to do it. Just imagine going in there, in the House of Commons, in amongst the lions. I mean I did feel a bit that way. You know, Daniel in the lions den.

You were probably the rose among the thorns.

No I tell you. I'm not making any secret but I was very nervous. I'd done many platforms before and it didn't bother me but you go in there and it's different somehow. You're out of your comfort zone.

The place itself is intimidating.

Yes and Big Ben, as I was going in, it was ringing and I tell you it doesn't half make a noise.

Yes it is loud.

Yes it was disquieting. It put me off for a bit but Red Cloud assured me that everything would go smoothly and when I got started then you just pretended that you were on stage and it all just came. It's an amazing thing you know. People often wonder. You can sit in a crowd and you have all these people around you and you say well how do you know who's meant for the message. Have you ever thought that? How you can stand in front of a crowd and actually physically point to the person who the message has come for.

Well the person from the astral stands beside them or so I was led to believe.

Well that might happen to some people. That's not what happened for me. When I was there everybody else just fell into like a mist and this one individual then came in focus. So when you looked out you could only see one person. Well to be more correct there was only one person in focus and all the rest were as if a cloud had come over them. So it wasn't very difficult. It had to be right because he was, or she was. In the House of Commons obviously it was all he. Very male dominated place that you know. It was even more so then. Well to actually let a lady (and I'm putting airs on there aren't I?) a lady, a person of the feminine gender, getting a person of the feminine gender standing there in the middle of the House of Commons. I thought only the Queen did that. She was the only one who was allowed in the House of Commons and that was only on special occasions.

So there were no female MPs at that time?

No, it was unheard of. I mean the females had only just got the vote. It would be unthinkable. Ladies were meant to know their place, pregnant and in the kitchen. Didn't you know? Haven't you read all the books at that time?

No. Well I come from New Zealand and they got the vote first there, females.

Yes but no in the 1950s it was very much a case of the lady, was the little lady at home. She wasn't allowed to have an opinion. I am pleased to see that things have now changed on the Earth Plane
