Cloaking Down to Visit the Earth Plane

By Estelle Roberts 2012

What are your thoughts about Germans in WWII? When they killed all the Jews etc.

Well that was something out of my control.

Did it have to happen?

I am sure that it was known about in the Divine Plan. Did you know young Hitler is back on the Earth Plane now?

He did a good job while he was here.

He didn't do a good job. He was a nasty little individual. I was there dear boy! I was there during all the Blitz! Don't tell me he did a good job. He was a nasty little man and please forgive me from saying things like that.

But he moved everything.

Yes and No. There are many things on the Earth Plane which I don't fully understand and I don't pretend to be the Oracle who understands everything and that's another problem with the people of the Earth Plane when they come to meetings like ours. They think well, you're a guide. You're in the astral sphere. You should have all knowledge. Why should we? We have only got the knowledge that we have learnt and if we haven't necessarily learnt as much as you and I'm only using this as an example. If we have only learnt as much as you, and you ask us something which is beyond our understanding, well how do you expect us to know the answer? The answer is we don't, but we cheat. You know we cheat don't you, because we have others around who can advise us, who do know the answer. So therefore we sound very knowledgeable ourselves where in fact it wasn't really us at all.

Well you're there to help the people on the material world.

Well we try to. Sometimes we do wonder if we're banging our head against a brick wall though. We have tried to put a bit of padding on but it still hurts, but we do keep trying and all jokes aside the Earth Plane is progressing quite well. I'm not saying that we wouldn't prefer that it progressed better but I'm saying it is progressing quite well. I have been told that the higher beings are happy with the progress of the Earth Plane.

There seem to be a lot of very old soul coming back to earth.

That's a silly statement. You are eternal. You were eternal. You will always be eternal, so how can you have an old soul if you've been around forever?

Somebody with more experience and knowledge are coming to earth to help.

Higher vibration beings. Yes there you are correct. So they are not old souls as such. They are beings who have a higher purity and therefore because of their higher purity they can convey more correct messages and more direct messages. We have had some really interesting people here though haven't we and their knowledge, their understanding, just makes you feel so inadequate when a being comes who is the epitome of love and you stand next to them in their aura. You realise how far you've still got to go and people look at the higher teachers, and I'm referring to teachers like Red Cloud, like Silver Birch and many others who come to our meeting, and you think you don't get much higher but then you get other beings who come and they feel inadequate against them and I think how on earth can that be but when you see the purity in the light then you understand because they haven't actually achieved the 7th plane. They're very close but they still reside in the 6th and therefore when somebody comes down from the 7th plane they can only come down for a short while. I don't know if that's ever been explained to you.

You mean like Jesus because he only came for about 30 years

No I'm referring to the beings when they come to meetings such as this. If you get somebody from the higher planes who aren't used to cloaking themselves down – that's the best way as I can put it – because they cloak themselves down so as people can't see the true being which is within. It's the same thing when you're on the Earth Plane. You can't really see the true you because you are cloaked down with a physical body and it's the same thing when the higher beings come to our meeting, they come down in an astral body. Not necessarily theirs, not necessarily the one they used last time, or one of the ones that they used on the previous times, and that's another misnomer that people have. They feel well alright you have been passed the Summerland, you have gone to the 5th and 6th plane but when you come back and talk to the people of the Earth Plane you will occupy the astral being that you were last time you were on the Earth Plane.

Why in Heaven's name is that necessary? It's because that's what people perceive you would do, but if you've been to the Earth Plane 20 times you can have in effect 20 cloaks, which is all your astral body is, it's just a cloak. So you can go to your wardrobe and you've got 20 of them there and you pick up which one you want to have. So therefore it's not necessary you pick out the one of your last incarnation and you might find that the area that you're going to, your last incarnation wouldn't be suitable for the teachings that you have to give. So what do you do? You're going to a meeting in the Japanese islands. Well there's no point in going there as an Englishman is there? You wouldn't be treated very well would you? So you take the astral being of a Japanese gentleman and then what happens if you weren't Japanese when you were here last time, you say? But how do you understand their lingo?

Do you go to the Halls of Learning?

Yes but you have an advantage because you've picked up this astral body which was a Japanese individual and therefore all the memory of his last incarnation on the Earth Plane is left with the astral and therefore when he returns the ability to speak in the language is not difficult because we speak in thought form, in picture form, we don't translate that into words. That's only necessary in the lower levels of the Summerland and when you first come over to the Summerland but when you move beyond that all discussion is done by thought pattern and therefore you convey that thought pattern into the astral that you're occupying and then the words can flow from it. But yes you are quite right. You also go to the Halls of Learning so as you have the ability to converse yourself.

Now to converse in English – I didn't find it a problem conversing in English. I didn't make it a problem when I wanted to come and see you. I mean I didn't have to learn a different language or anything, so therefore I didn't have to do that learning curve but if somebody wants to go to and I use the Japanese nation purely for an example, it is good that they have an understanding of the culture and the beings of that nation. So they spend in your time about a year in the Halls of Learning. It doesn't seem a very long time to learn a language does it?

No it doesn't.

But when you're doing it – as you call it on the Earth Plane – 24/7, then the conveyance is a lot easier and when you're speaking to people in the language that you are trying to convey and that is all you are doing, it's amazing how quickly you pick it up and then when you go into that sphere, they are comfortable with you and that's what we want to do you see, we want to make everybody comfortable. I hope I've made a little bit of sense tonight.

Yes you have Estelle.
