

InsightsFromSpirit

www.insightsfromspirit.com

In the spirit world there is a yearly joining celebration

By Maurice Barbanell 2011

You said that in the spirit world that there is a yearly joining process where you get taught from another being. Are there times though where you get together say weekly, like we have in home circles? Do those joining processes take place in the spiritual realm as well?

The joining processes do occur. They occur normally when there are preordained religious ceremonies upon the Earth Plane. The timing of the religious ceremonies, for instance Easter, for instance Christmas, have not been placed upon your calendar for your convenience. The dates which they occurred are not in truth the dates which they respond to in reality. The Nazarene was not born upon the Earth Plane on December 25. He was born in the spring, but that is irrelevant. It is a celebration of his birth and his coming to the Earth Plane, so the actual physical date is insignificant. And in answer to your question, yes there are groups and they do meet on regular occasions but only if it is so desired by the people themselves. It is not a preordained time with the exception of Easter and the Christmas period. Does that answer your question?

Just an addendum to the question. The reason that people sit in the physical is for contact with spiritual beings and guides obviously. With the teachings that you receive in the spiritual realm from the higher beings, is there any time that you yourself would be seeking to communicate with those beings outside of that yearly process?

I seek communication on a regular and what you would classify a daily basis. My friend, my guide whom you have affectionately known as Silver Birch, is my constant and regular advisor in the world of spirit as you know it, as he was when I was in the physical plane. It is no different. We have guides as you would call them, who come from the higher planes and work in the lower planes. This does not only happen at the time of the Upliftment or Easter. This happens at all times, so you will always have a higher guide whom you can request information and enlightenment from. This situation is no different whether you are within the realms and the levels of the Summerland or whether you are from a higher plane. The situation is exactly the same. The only difference is the purity of the guide who comes through. After all, if you have educated to standard three it would be absolutely superfluous us sending you a university professor to discuss nuclear physics because you would not then be in a position to understand anything which is said, but once you have matured, once you have been enlightened, once you have purified yourself to the point where you are at one with the mental knowledge of the university professor, he can then impart that knowledge and you will receive it happily and readily. Does that make it clearer?

Yes thank you.

You are spirit. Never forget that my friends. You are not physical. You are not material. Your material body is merely a machine. A very complicated machine, but a machine all the same. Your spirit is what gives this machine life. You remove the spirit and the machine ceases to operate. It returns to dust and it matters not what you do to that machine once the silver cord has been severed. You can not make that machine respond. The break between spirit and material has happened. The spirit that occupied the physical continues. That after all is the real you. It continues back from whence it came, back to the world of spirit, the real world. We are not ethereal beings. We are real. You are the ethereal beings. You are the ones who are living in a false world. You are the ones who cannot perceive the true meaning of spirituality, because to believe truly about spirituality is to be at one with us. That is what we are seeking everybody to do.

Maurice Barbanell
February 2011