

People who are Attached to the Earth Plane after they Pass Over

By Estelle Roberts 2015

Can I ask you about healing, as in our group we do a fair bit of healing?

No you don't. You don't do a fair bit of healing. You are a recipient of the healing power which you pass on.

Yes. Thank you.

Thank you. People do get those thoughts into their heads, sorry but people get into their mind that I am a healer. Nobody can heal because all healing comes from the powers above. All you are is a channel for the healing power to pass through.

Yes we accept that.

Well I thought there were a few people here who might not have done, so I thought I had better explain.

When somebody passes over, what happens when some people get stuck?

There's a lot reasons why people get stuck.

How can we help them?

Well that's a big question. Can I answer it in parts? There's various reasons why people get stuck on the Earth Plane. One of the biggest reasons, which is totally within our control to stop, is that of grief. You might think that's a strange thing for me to say but if somebody is stricken with grief, the love bond that they have with the individual that has passed over is so great that you actually physically hold them back within the vibration of the Earth Plane and they cannot move forward until you have passed over to join them. Which when you look at it in that way, it's a jolly selfish thing to do isn't it?

It is a little bit but you don't realise you're doing it.

No you don't realise. So what we try to tell our people is it's perfectly all right to grieve and feel as bad as you want for a period of 2 to 3 weeks, one moon at the extreme. Then tell your loved one that it is perfectly all right with you if they move on to the Summerland, go and have their rest and once they have had their rest and they are refreshed, they are more than welcome to come back and be with us because that's what they want to do. They still want to be with you but you've got to give them the opportunity to go forward and have all the physical complaints which affected them on the Earth Plane removed.

And to do this we take them into what you would affectionately call a hospital. It's not a hospital but for all intents and purposes it is. And then what happens is a being of a higher vibration, much higher than me, comes through and washes away the auras of all those who are in the hospital. Now sometimes people are very resilient and reluctant to let go so, and I'm talking about people already on the spirit side, they are very reluctant to let go and therefore they can be asleep for 1, 2, 3, 10 years but that's more the exception than the rule. It's more normal that people will sleep for between one and three months in that period.

So if it occurs to you and a loved one passes over, after you've had your initial grieving time, let them go and then they will come back and you will feel their presence far more so than you would have done if the grieving was such that you held on to them. Because what you are doing then is you're utilising it as a crutch for yourself rather than assisting.

There are other misguided individuals, there are people who surround the Earth Plane who aren't very nice. They are of a lower vibration and they are very real. They are very much a part of the Earth Plane. Unfortunately they were all part of the 7th plane. They were all part of the Holy band. They were all exactly the same. We were all part of the Holy band and we wandered off. It's just that they wandered off a little bit further and haven't come back. And when they look at people of the Earth Plane and they see that they're doing good things and they look at themselves in the mirror and they say "they are nicer than me, that's not fair. I'm going to bring them down to my level. I'm going to create mischief and create problems within their lives so that they diminish the love which they have within their being and they lower their vibration and they come down to my level". I'm afraid that there is an awful lot of people in that state and we both in the Summerland, the higher planes and on the Earth Plane have to slowly bring these people forward.

At times I've gone to people's houses because they've got problems with these soles.

And you feel cold don't you?

And I feel cold and things are falling off walls or whatever happens and so we've gone there just to see if we can help...

To tell them to push off, go away!

Yes and we also have to be polite somewhat...

Yes and sometimes you don't have to be polite! The best way to tell some people is just to say "bugger off because these people don't want you!" I'm sorry I shouldn't say things like that. Maurice he's gone completely red. Well he gets so embarrassed when I say rude things because he's so prim and proper that man you know. Sorry.

No, no...that's good.

But that's what you've got to do. More often than not there are other individuals who are lost and haven't found their way through to the Summerland. Those are times when there is a very large band of helpers. In our group the leader of that band is Beloved Joseph. We've had talks from Beloved Joseph have we not we Judith?

Yes we have.

And he enters the depths of the dark spheres, the dark planes, the dark vibration and he has to reduce or cloak his vibration down to the point where he can be accepted as an equal. And then when he can communicate with somebody he will try and lighten his vibration, just a little bit, so the love can show. And he's got to bring them forth to the point where they can be brought into the lower area of the Summerland and from there, hopefully, they can be taught and if they can't be taught they are brought back to the Earth Plane into another family and hopefully that family will bring forth the love within.

Have you ever thought about that situation? You go and you look at a family, and I will use an example that the family has four children and three are absolutely wonderful well-adjusted people and the other one's a right monster isn't he or she? And that is because that individual has been placed in that circumstance to try and have the goodness of the others rub off, so that when they leave the Earth Plane they are that much better than they were before they entered. Obviously it is unlikely that they will reach the level of the rest of the family but it doesn't matter providing they have improved and providing they have advanced and the love which they have within them has developed and instead of being a dark black mass it's a dark grey mass. And then from that dark grey mass they are put into a situation where it can turn lighter and eventually it will be dispelled to the point where it is unperceivable to the human eye or the astral eye because the human eye can't see the astral beings of that dimensional.

Does that answer all your question?

Thank you yes. Thank you very much. It's very much appreciated.
