

www.insightsfromspirit.com

Why Mediums get their Past Lives Wrong

By Maurice Barbanell 2013

We have developed into a society of initials haven't we? On the publicity of the Psychic News they are using the PN rather than the full Psychic News. They put Psychic News there but the PN is the logo so to speak. It wouldn't have happened in my day but then again there's a lot of things that are happening in the Psychic News, and many other matters, that wouldn't have happened in my day. But that is not of any concern of mine and that is something else that a lot of people on the Earth Plane have a problem in comprehending is that what occurred in my life, or what was important to me when I was alive on my life on the Earth Plane, now really has very little significance to my thinking. I can honestly say that I do not spend more than 5 minutes a year in recounting what occurred on my last visit to the Earth Plane.

Well you did your best Maurice.

Exactly and you are who you are at this point in time, so there's no point in looking back on what you did because that has made you who you are and if you keep going back you are not progressing are you? You are not moving forward and yet when you go to meetings and you give a talk, everybody wants to concentrate their questions on your previous incarnation and then they get very uptight when your memory lapses because you hadn't thought about it and if you haven't thought about something for 30, 40 years, why should it be in the forefront of your mind, but people do not realise that on the Earth Plane. They expect you to remember every detail that they have spent hours finding to trap you and a lot of the times that's what they're trying to do you know. They're not really asking out of interest.

Trying to discredit. They want to trap you so they can then say ah ha I've got you there!

Exactly, therefore you're obviously not who you say you are.

You believe who you are Maurice so the rest doesn't matter. (A doubting Thomas in our group)

So therefore I can believe I'm Mussolini can I?

If you want to. It's your life.

You are 100% right there dear boy. I spent a lot of my life condemning the works and the actions of Mussolini. And that is something you can check up on. People tend to forget that as a writer and editor I also had my own thoughts and my own prejudices. You can't go through a major world confrontation without developing a personal like and dislike, and I'm not saying it was right I'm just saying it was matter of fact that I did.

You've got your own opinion.

Of course I've have my own opinion, and my opinion is in my thinking, the only correct opinion, and that is a problem that we all have on the Earth Plane don't we? We consider that our opinion is the supreme opinion which should be accepted and then you get teachings as we have in our meeting and we then realise that our opinions need to change because really they are not based on love and friendship and fellowship are they? They are based on self worth, self adulation and self aggrandisement.

We go through that don't we.

And even worse we go through the point where we want to improve our financial standing over and above our teaching of love and compassion.

We all go through that Maurice.

You don't have to tell me about that dear boy. I was as guilty as the next man. To a certain degree we feel that our friends in the astral sphere have lost all perception of the problems of the Earth Plane when they leave and to a certain degree that is true. We have to keep going back to the Halls of Learning to get our feet placed back on to the ground.

It dulls the memory...

It does and you then get into what you would affectionately call a fools paradise.

When you are young you go to school then you start, for guys, you start chasing the girls, then you start thinking how to make a lot of money. That's the normal thinking of people on earth.

Not all guys chase girls dear boy. There are some who are a little bit the other way inclined.

And they chase boys. That doesn't matter. They're still doing chasing.

Well you may think it doesn't matter. As far as I'm concerned it mattered a great deal. I do not think my dearly beloved would appreciate the fact that I was chasing a boy. Would you not agree Judith?

Yes I would agree there.

Sylvia was not very kindly in her thoughts in that direction. But that's alright. She had a lot of good parts to her being as well. We were very much in love you know. It is something that is an unfortunate rare commodity a lot of the time you know.

And some people stay together for the sake of security and fear. They do not wish to disappoint other people and really at times it is the wrong thing to do. You don't want to get yourself stuck into a situation which in reality is having a negative effect on your being. But equally you don't want to take the other step and take the easy way out and that is something else that happens on the Earth Plane very much at the moment. As soon as things get a little bit difficult they jump out of the boat don't they? But that doesn't mean that that is right and equally it's not always right to be the captain and go down with the ship. Although that doesn't happen very often anymore does it? The captain is frequently the first one in the lifeboat.

Well thank you my friends. It is as always wonderful to be with you.

Maurice Barbanell
February 2013