The True Purpose of Healing

By Maurice Barbanell 2015

It is wonderful that we have been given the opportunity to go forth and spread the word. A lot of people get totally misunderstood; misunderstand the importance of the word of the teachings. The essence of the churches when they consider that they have done great work, it is through the power or the demonstration of healing. Not enough is concentrated upon the teachings and it is through the teachings and the awareness which comes from the teachings which enable each and every one of us to progress and purify our being, our aura. The healing which is a manifestation of the power of the Great Spirit is merely that. It is a demonstration of the power but it does not help in one iota your or their progress in purity and the ability to cleanse your aura. And yet so much emphasis is placed upon the healing rather than the teachings. People who go to the churches consider the greatest gift that they can have is the ability to heal. We have all seen that whenever we visit churches have we not?

(All) Yes.

But it does not help you as an individual. It makes your life on the Earth Plane a little bit more comfortable. It may be utilised to convince you or change your way of thinking so that you are then in a mindset to look towards the teachings, because unless you have the teachings you do not have the tools and the ability to move forward. You do not have the compunction to move forward. You say "I have been healed. Glory be to God" but then carry on living in exactly the same way as you did before. Whereas if you have been given the teachings and it changes your mental attitude, it changes the way you think, the way you behave, then the healing that has come over has been conducted upon your being, is far greater than any physical healing could ever be. Because your physical body is there for a relatively short period, an infinitely small period, but your being, your soul, is eternal and therefore if you can progress the purity within your being, the purity within your heart, the purity within your mind, your actions, your deeds, then the benefit extends far beyond the realms of the Earth Plane. It extends far beyond the realms of the astral sphere. It extends right up to the time and passed the time you enter the 7th plane.

So never forget to put the healing of the physical body and the healing of your mind in true relationship. It is far more important to change your attitude than it is to have your physical body cured. And if you can truly change your attitude, you can truly make yourself a being of greater love, far greater than the requirement or the goal that you had set when you entered the Earth Plane, then the healing of the physical body will be axiomatic. It will happen automatically because you cannot have a truly pure heart contained within a rancid physical body. And even if the physical body may for all intents and purposes from the outside be perceived as being in pain, if you have purified your essence then that pain is an outward expression, not something which is felt within your being. You will not perceive that the pain and the discomfort are there.

So purify your heart. Purify the way you treat and behave with your fellow man. If you do this my friends, your journey through the Earth Plane will be a success. In fact it will be an excess to supreme levels to the point where you might never have to reoccupy a physical body. Now would that not be a wonderful occurrence?

Yes.

Have your mental state of your being to such a position where there is no need to revisit the Earth Plane. Because after all why on earth would you want to come back here? So try your hardest my friends. Try and make it unnecessary for you to return to the Earth Plane and each and every one of you have that capacity within their being. So that's quite a goal to set yourself is it not?

It certainly is.

You have the ultimate reward and the ultimate reward is the fact that you don't have to come back! You have won the goal prize. And then the next goal prize would be that you have no need to ever utilise an astral body again. That is the next goal and that is achieved when you remove yourself from the 6th plane or you are removed from the 6th plane and are moved on to the 7th.

But take the first step. Take the step where you can remove the necessity to come back to the Earth Plane. And each and every one of you can do that my friends. We can all make excuses. We can all make what we consider reasons for us not succeeding, but if you do not succeed the only person who is suffering is you yourself. So try my friends. It would give me immense happiness and pleasure if I can take each and every one of your hands and escort you directly to the 5th plane.

Sometimes not as comfortably as you would like but you will always have the capacity providing you do not put restraints and mental blocks in the way.
