Why Maurice comes to our Group

By Maurice Barbanell 2010

I am always amazed when my friend, my mentor, comes to talk. His ability to put things in such a simple way which makes things very clear.

I apologise that when you are preparing my talks for our website you sometimes have to do some editing. I never had to edit when I prepared the talks of my guide for publication. It made my life very simple. I just recorded and transcribed word perfect on what was given. As you know, doing the editing of our talks, that's not always the case when I give mine.

Not always, no.

I don't care because that is the way I am so therefore it is something which we have to accept. Well you don't have to accept. I suppose you could disregard it but if you disregard it what is the point in me coming? I don't know if you've ever thought of it that way. That we actually chose to come to your group. Some people would consider it quite a feather in their cap and big note themselves. That is something that the other groups find it very difficult to comprehend. What's so special about them? Why doesn't he come to us? Obviously they're big noting themselves. Obviously he's just a big head trying to make a name for himself. Nothing could be further from the truth could it?

No.

And that my friends is the reason why we come. I am immensely proud and pleased to be associated with this group now, because the individuals, the beings, who have blessed us with their presence is awe inspiring I can assure you. There have been visitations which people would cut off their right arm to have experienced. And the big thing, the reason why you get visitations such as this, is you just accept the people for what they are and the teachings that they give. You do not get on your soapbox, not like I did (Maurice used to often stand on a soapbox at speakers corner in London), you don't stand up there and lord yourself and say how wonderful are we because we have had XYZ at our meeting. People think that anyway but that is not the way you think and that is what is important. What is important is the fact that you accept the teachings and the people who come to visit you with an open heart and a total acceptance. And I can assure you there are multitudes of people in the Summerland who rejoice because you give them the opportunity to listen and be encompassed within the love aura of the people who come.

So my friends don't ever change your thinking. Don't ever change the way you behave. Do not ever change the way you respond to people but do not - excuse me this physical body is very uncomfortable with the various physical problems he is suffering from. I know I must not complain. I will accept it as a gift that I have been given. I have to keep telling myself that. I am privileged to be allowed to come to the Earth Plane and therefore if I am going through physical discomfort I should rejoice in that fact! I have to keep telling myself that you see.

It is a little hard to do sometimes is it not?

It is.

I can assure you I spent many a year visiting many groups, many mediums, before I came here and was happy with residing with this group. Can you imagine how frustrating it was for me going to these various mediums who aspired to being truly wonderfully gifted mediums, but had the total incorrect frame of mind and attitude to project the teachings which we require projecting. So I can assure you I know firsthand the frustrations of the free will of mankind.
